Tranel Endorsed by NRA

Cuba City, WI... Republican Challenger for the 49th Assembly District, Travis Tranel, is announcing the endorsement of the National Rifle Association (NRA). Tranel, who received an "A" rating from the NRA says he is proud to accept the endorsement of the Second Amendment rights and pro-hunter group.

"I'll gladly take the endorsement of America's largest grass roots supporter of gun and hunting rights," said Tranel. "I believe that Wisconsinites have a right to defend themselves and their families and I will vote to reflect that belief."

Tranel, a member of Ducks Unlimited, says he will make it a priority to keep public lands open to sportsmen. He also says he will work ensure that hunting and fishing fees are used properly and not raided for general spending.

Tranel's opponent Phil Garthwaite (D-Dickeyville) earned a "C" rating from the NRA. The election for the 49th Assembly District takes place November 2nd, 2010.
