Tranel for Assembly: $22,000 Cash on Hand

Tranel says successful fundraising boosted by public frustration with incumbent Democrat policies

Cuba City, WI... Travis Tranel, Republican Candidate for Wisconsin's 49th Assembly District, is reporting that his campaign has $22,000 cash on hand. The campaign has raised nearly $18,000 during the July reporting period. Tranel says that donors frequently expressed frustration with tax and spending increases supported by the incumbent Democrat.

"I am humbled by the many donations made by my supporters in Grant County and the surrounding areas," said Tranel. "Our strong showing is indicative of the momentum of our campaign to restore common sense and fiscal sanity to our government."

Tranel says that 90% of the donations to his campaign came from within the 49th district and that much of the rest came from surrounding areas in Southwest, WI. More than 160 donations were received throughout the July reporting period.

"The voters of Southwest, WI are frustrated with policies from our incumbent legislator that increased spending by 10% and hiked taxes by nearly $5 billion, hurting our economic recovery," said Tranel. "It's time to get spending under control and to bring jobs to our area."

The 49th Assembly District includes all of Grant County, and parts of Richland, Iowa, and Lafayette Counties. The Republican primary will be held on September 14th and the General Election will be held on November 2nd.
